Christianity EXPLORED

For all who would like to investigate Christianity or just brush up on the basics. Explore who Jesus is, as he walks off the pages of Mark's Gospel.

A Taster Evening Wednesday 6th Feb. 7.00pm at St. Mary's

It's all very informal- NO question is out of bounds and no previous knowledge is presumed or expected!

- It's a chance to find out more about the life of faith
- It's designed especially for Parents and Godparents
- For some- it's a refresher in the basics of our faith
- For some- it's about friendship, discussion & encouragement.
- For some- it's a chance to consider whether to take a particular step such as Baptism & Confirmation.

On FIVE Wednesday evenings before Easter
20th Feb * 27th Feb * 6th March * 13th March * 20th March

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

p776

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah

The Vindication and Salvation of Zion

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

The Gospel

John 2:1-11

The Wedding at Cana

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
