RACE FOR LIFE: I would like to offer sincere heartfelt thanks for those who have sponsored me and donated very generously in the fight against Cancer, with myself taking part in the 5k Race for Life in Portsmouth, on Southsea Common with my sister-in-law Debbie, her mother, her daughters and my mother-in-law and sister-in-law Claire. There were approximately 4,500 entrants not including supporters who attended and cheered us on. It was a truly humbling experience to know that all of those 4,500 ladies either had, have had or knew someone with cancer. Race for Life takes place around the country and is raising much needed funds for research into the new ways of treating cancer. So thank you very much indeed for your kind consideration. Debbie will be undergoing treatment for three cancers - so please hold her in your prayers, along with my friends who are also undergoing treatment for their cancers. Lynda Durrell

The First Reading

Exodus 3.1-15

A Reading from the Book of Exodus

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, 'I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.' When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, 'Moses, Moses!' And he said, 'Here I am.' Then he said, 'Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.' He said further, 'I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, 'I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.' But Moses said to God, 'Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?' He said, 'I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.'

But Moses said to God, 'If I come to the Israelites and say to them, "The God of your ancestors has sent me to you", and they ask me, "What is his name?" what shall I say to them?' God said to Moses, 'I am who I am.' He said further, 'Thus you shall say to the Israelites, "I am has sent me to you."' God also said to Moses, 'Thus you shall say to the Israelites, "The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you": This is my name for ever, and this my title for all generations.

The Gospel Reading

John 6:1-21

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus. When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.'

Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat."'

Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.' Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'

Welcome to Ross. Between 6th and 27th September we shall be welcoming a young man called Ross Meikle to St. Mary's and Jesus Church. Ross is an Ordinand in training for Ministry at Cranmer Hall in Durham. So that he can learn a little more about what he's letting himself in for (!) he will be undertaking a three week Parish Placement with us in which he'll join in a range of tasks alongside the Vicar and get to know us (and our communities) a little. He'll be staying with David and Margaret at the Vicarage but if you would like to invite Ross to have an evening meal- or indeed to call in for a cup of tea while he's here, please have a word with the Vicar or Carol in the office and we'll make the arrangements. Ross will be penning a few lines about himself in the September edition of the Magazine. Thanks
