PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS PRAYER GROUP: Wednesdays at 2.30pm in the Addison Room. Please ask Pat for more info. Tel. 07814 316177. Lebanon: A quarter of the population of Lebanon are now Syrian refugees. Pray for the Lebanese church as it serves Syrian refugees.

CHURCH BOOKSTALL: a NEW Selection of Books on Christian themes is available on the Bookstall in the North Aisle. Courtesy of Market Place Books in Kendal.

MOTHERS UNION: Sunday 10th July after the 11am service we will be having a collection for the M.U. Overseas Fund as this year it is the 140th Anniversary of the Mothers' Union. All branches are going to raise as much money as possible for this very worthy cause. Please support us. Thank you, Marie, Branch Leader.

STRAWBERRY TEA: Saturday 23rd July 1-4pm If you would like to donate Raffle Prizes, bake cakes or donate items for a Nearly New Stall, please see sign-up sheet in the North Aisle.

ANTIQU AND VINTAGE FAIR: Thursday 28th July at St. Mary's If you would like to help serve tea and coffee on the day, please contact Carol in the Parish Office Tel: 44596. Thank you.

WINDERMERE FOODBANK: is looking for new Trustees to manage the Food Bank. If this is something you feel strongly about, i.e. social justice for vulnerable people in our society and to be able to act with compassion in a time of crisis, then maybe this is something you may like to join. The Trustees meet approximately 3 times a year for a meeting to discuss the finances, management, and the way forward for the Food Bank and how it can help the community it serves. Several of our original Trustees have come to the end of their tenure and therefore we need new members - please have a think whether this is something you could help with. Thank you. Lynda Durrell.

Thank you: for your support for Jonathan at his Welcome Service last Sunday and for contributions towards Refreshments.

From our Book of Remembrance: This week we remember:

Florence Burston, Laurence Stephenson, Dorothy Smith, Cecil Reed, Wallace Salisbury, Robert Ogden, Clara Gibbons, Harvey Elias, Annie Skelton, Richard Wyre, Robert Eyre and Elizabeth Logie.

This week you are invited to pray for:

Our Purpose:

We are here to help everyone to know and grow in the love of God through prayer, worship, teaching and service.

Our Vision:

A thriving, growing Christian community.

The First Reading Galatians 6: (1-6), 7-16 page 933

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians

My friends, if anyone is detected in a transgression, you who have received the Spirit should restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness. Take care that you yourselves are not tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfil the law of Christ. For if those who are nothing think they are something, they deceive themselves. All must test their own work; then that work, rather than their neighbour's work, will become a cause for pride. For all must carry their own loads. Those who are taught the word must share in all good things with their teacher. Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith. See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised—only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

The Gospel Reading Luke 10:1-11, 16-20 page 934

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.

Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.

Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near."

'Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.' The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'
