The First Reading Ephesians 4:25, 5:2 page 649

A Reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians

The early Christian churches were extraordinary mixes of slaves and free men, wealthy and poor, with inevitable potential for scrounging, deceit, gossip and anger. The Ephesians are directed to the reconciling love of God experienced through Jesus.

So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labour and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

The Gospel Reading Mark 1.40-45 p488

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

A leper came to him begging him, and kneeling he said to him, 'If you choose, you can make me clean.' Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, 'I do choose. Be made clean!' Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. After sternly warning him he sent him away at once, saying to him, 'See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.' But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

Welcome to Ross. Between 6th and 27th September we shall be welcoming a young man called Ross Meikle to St. Mary's and Jesus Church. Ross is an Ordinand in training for Ministry at Cranmer Hall in Durham. So that he can learn a little more about what he's letting himself in for (!) he will be undertaking a three week Parish Placement with us in which he'll join in a range of tasks alongside the Vicar and get to know us (and our communities) a little. He'll be staying with David and Margaret at the Vicarage but if you would like to invite Ross to have an evening meal- or indeed to call in for a cup of tea while he's here, please have a word with the Vicar or Carol in the office and we'll make the arrangements. Ross will be penning a few lines about himself in the September edition of the Magazine. Thanks
