The First Reading Ephesians 5:15-20 page 654

A Reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians

Writing probably around 70 or 80 AD, the author of the Epistle to the Ephesians calls for discipline, wisdom, and above all exuberant worship.

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel Reading John 6:51-58 page 655

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Jesus said 'I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' So Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.'

Welcome to Ross. Between 6th and 27th September we shall be welcoming a young man called Ross Meikle to St. Mary's and Jesus Church. Ross is an Ordinand in training for Ministry at Cranmer Hall in Durham. So that he can learn a little more about what he's letting himself in for (!) he will be undertaking a three week Parish Placement with us in which he'll join in a range of tasks alongside the Vicar and get to know us (and our communities) a little. He'll be staying with David and Margaret at the Vicarage but if you would like to invite Ross to have an evening meal- or indeed to call in for a cup of tea while he's here, please have a word with the Vicar or Carol in the office and we'll make the arrangements. Ross will be penning a few lines about himself in the September edition of the Magazine. Thanks
